The 2019 Collection

★ Christopher Radko® ★

January 2019

*W*armest greetings to our Radko family!

Every year at Christopher Radko we have the delight of creating over 500 of the most joyful ornaments you will ever find. As you turn these pages you will be instantly charmed by the beauty and whimsy our designers imbued in our 2019 collection, from Santa & Mrs. Claus kissing under the mistletoe to playful Penguins having a snowball fight! All of our designs individually brought to life from their original sketches to the finished ornaments painted with vivid enamels and fine glitter. Each one an individual masterpiece created at our European old world glass workshops.

It will be hard to resist our new Ornament of the Month collection featuring the celebrated icons of your favorite Christopher Radko ornaments depicting the Christmas traditions we all cherish. From reindeer hanging their personalized stockings to Santa greeting everyone at midnight mass, there is not a piece you and your family will not adore for years to come.

Hold one of our new snowglobes from the Home for the Holidays collection and you will be mesmerized as the snow gently swirls among holiday villages with Santa circling from above led by his trusty reindeers. Our globes our true collectables with minute details of intricate holiday scenes colorfully painted and embellished with fine glitter.

The ornaments in the 2019 Shiny Brite collection reflect our love for the heritage of classic holiday decorations while infusing bright festive colors that mirror our world today. We recently found a treasure trove of archival sketches to inspire this year's newest introductions, from reflectors to vintage-inspired figures, this new collection will enchant all fans of Shiny Brite.

It is hard for us to pick a favorite within these pages because we love them all! As we travel around the country we love meeting you and hearing wonderful stories of your favorite Christopher Radko designs from years gone by and what you will be adding to your collection this year! Your words of admiration always bring a smile to our faces and inspire us to create the most amazing collection of holiday decor anywhere. From all of us at Christopher Radko, we thank you for allowing us to grace your home and your heart with our incredible creations for so many years.

Our best wishes,

The Christopher Radko Company
