CHRISTOPHER RADKO PRESENTS

Teddies Around the World

PLUSH ORNAMENTS!

For a century, the Teddy Bear has been the classic childhood companion, with a popularity that has circled the globe. It's no wonder that for his first plush creations, Christopher Radko has literally taken Teddy Bears around the world!

Christopher presents eight velvety plush bears in the traditional native attire of (left to right, below) Great Britain, Spain, Japan, Germany, the U.S.A., Russia, Kenya and Italy. The Teddy Bear was named after President Theodore Roosevelt, who famously spared the life of an orphan cub on a hunting expedition in 1902. An enterprising Brooklyn shopkeeper wrote the President and asked whether she could name her toy bears after him. Teddy Roosevelt consented and - needless to say - the name stuck!

Christopher's special limited edition bear (only 1,000 will be produced!) is a dapper and adorable gent whose timeless attire suggests that of Teddy Roosevelt's era, right down to the working pocket watch he wears! He also boasts a musical feature, with a wind-up key in his back to play The Teddy Bear Picnic.
